FAIR-CLASS HORSES FOR LITTLE ROCK.

Every Stall at the Track Will Be Occupied for the Meeting That Begins Monday.

CUSHING HAS HIGH HOPES.

Says His Colt William Wright Can Beat Rainland and Dutiful Doing Anything and Expects Him to Win.

Little Rock, Ark., March 15.-J. E. Cushing, Tom Stevens and J. E. Daniels are the most prominent horsemen stabled at the Little Rock track. Cushing and Stevens have wintered here. Daniels raced at New Orleans until the Hot Springs meeting, when he shipped north, but was unable to secure stable room at the new track and came here.

All the other stables that wintered here were shipped to Hot Springs. They will all return next week for the spring meeting. The Arkansas Jockey Club has stall room for 300 head of horses, and nearly every stall will be taken next week.

Cushing is giving William Wright, by Boundless-May Bee, a special preparation for the Arkansas Derby. This colt's sire, Boundless, won the Arkansas Derby of 1833 for Mr. Cushing. William Wright was a pretty fair colt on the Chicago tracks last season. He is a handsome, big bay. His dam, May Bee, was stred by Virgil. CAN BEAT RAINLAND,

I think that William Wright will beat all the Rainlands and Dutifuls they bring here," said Mr. Cushing at Clinton Park. He could tow-rope Rainland when Gold-

"He could tow-rope Rainland when Gold-blatt brought this coit to Chicago last season, but I am told that Rainland had gone back considerably. Making allow-ances for that fact, I still feel confident that William Wright will take care of him in the Arkansas Derby.

"The only trouble with my colt is his dislike for the Little Rock track. He is at his best on a hard, fast track. The going at Chitan Park is too deep and soft for him. William Wright cannot run a lick in the mud. Let the sun hide behind a cloud and it is enough to beat him. Tom Stevens has a pair of malicens that will be hard to beat in the Arkansas Derby. Maldens will get a ten-pound allowance in this stake. Neither Rainland nor Dutifui will beat my colt in the Derby, but one of Stevens's maldens may take him into camp."

STEVENS'S NOMINATIONS. Stevens has three nominations in the Arkansas Derby, Barkley, by Wadsworth-April's Lady; Chariton, by Wadsworth-Patoka., and Schoolbate, by Wadsworth-Patoka., and Schoolbate, by Wadsworth—Margaret Jane, are all entered by the master of the Walmit Hill Farm. Stevens has not had a good coit since he sold Wyeth and Gallagher, and it is about time for him to bob up with another $10,000 beauty. He sent two highly tried 2-year-olds to New Orleans, but the youngsters took sick and have never been started. One of them was a sixter to the American Derby winner, Wyeth. The other is a fast colt by Algel.

W. P. Reed will ship to Little Rock from New Orleans this week with Dusky and Bud Embry. Dusky is a bay filly by St. Leonards—Dusk. Reed bought her from Albert Simons at New Orleans. She is a mence by Lord Hermence—Biddy Doyle. This colt ran a number of creditable races on the St. Louis tracks last season. His owner did not race the colt at New Or leans, preferring to save him for the legitimate racing campaign on the Northern circuit. Lord Hermence is a handsome hay celt of size and substance and will take some beating at a mile.

Wille Cole, who trains for Doctor J. G. Purrish of St. Louis, went over to Hot Springs last week and won two races with Imboden and Miss Guldo, two horses he has wintered at Little Rock. Both Imboden and Miss Guldo, two horses he has wintered at Little Rock. Both Imboden and Miss Guldo, two horses he has wintered at Little Rock. Both Imboden and Miss Guldo, mance were the best of Guldo's get in training last season. Both were returned stake winners in their 2-year-old form. Imboden ran a mile in 1:49 and a fraction the second time he started at Hot Springs. Scotch Dance is considered a better colt than Imboden, but he is none too sound and may not train. and may not train.

STRODE'S TWO-YEAR-OLDS. J. S. Strode, who won the Arkansas Derby two years ago with Prowl, will ship to Little Rock at the conclusion of the to Little Rock at the conclusion of the New Orleans meeting. He has two candidates for the Capitol Hotel Stakes in Half Tag, by Halma—Taglioni, and Pearl B. by Riley-Virginette. Both these youngsters are highly tried, and the best of the pair will probably cut some figure in the lists 2-year-old stake of the Little Rock meeting. The Capitol Hotel Stakes will be run the first day of the meeting.

The business men of Little Rock are taking great interest in the coming race meeting. They recognize the fact that it has a tet dercy to advertise Little Rock, and brings hundreds of visitors to the city from surrounding points. The merchants of the city have contributed liberally to the purses.

TERRY SECRETARY OF M. A. C. Real Estate Man Chosen to Fill the Post of Late Robert Mudd. At the last meeting of the Missouri Athletic Club, A. T. Terry, who has been erving as secretary since the death of serving as secretary since the death of Robert H. Muid, was elected to fill that office for the remainder of the year. At the same time, the resignation of Lesile Marmaduke was accepted and W. E. S. Jarrett elected treasurer in his place.

Mr. Jarrett has been auditor and general assistant manager of the Boatmen's Bank for the last ten years. He assumes full control of the office of treasurer at the Missouri Club.

Reports of the membership show that the club is rapidly nearing the 5,000 mark. Isaac A. Hedges, vice president of the club, will depart Saturday for a short trip to the East and will extend an invitation to the athlette clubs of Chicago, New York, Boston and Philadelphia to make the Misosuri Athletic Chub their headquarters in the course of the Fair.

The final swimming matches of the association will be held in the club's tank to-morrow evening, the occasion being the last general tournament of the winter. At this meet efforts will be made to select a team to represent the M. A. C. in the World's Fair. This tournament will be an open affair and swimmers from the various clubs of the city will compete with the club's rep-resentatives.

HAPPENINGS IN ILLINOIS CITIES AND TOWNS

MADE JUSTICE TWO COUPLES FULFILL PROMISE

Magistrate Driscoll Had Said He Would Officiate at Miss Crowl's Marriage Free of Charge.

"We have come here to get married bepretty brunette, to Justice of the Peace John J. Driscoll of East St. Louis yester day afternoon. She was accompanied by Ed Van Orven, who declared his willingness to be the husband. Justice Driscoll laughingly said that he had made the promise and that he proposed to live up to it. A few moments later the ceremony was performed. Mrs. Van Orven had for a long time been employed at Wies's Delicatessen in the Arcade building, East St. Louis, and while employed in this capacity regularly while employed in this capacity regularly served meals and lunches to Judge Driscoll and to Mr. Van Orven, who is a railroad man.

When the then Miss Crowl one day informed Judge Driscoll that she was engaged to be married, he told her that when she got the license to bring her prospective husband to his office and that he would marry them free of charge. "I think that we are the luckiest couple in East St. Louis, to get married free of charge," said Mrs. Van Orven after the ceremony had been performed and she had been presented with a marriage certificate. "I just know that this means that we will have lots and lots of happiness and money."

PREPARING FOR POLITICAL FRAY. Yates and Anti-Yates Forces Hold Numerous Conferences.

The Yates and anti-Yates forces in East St. Louis are warming up for the fray on Friday, when they hold the primary elec-tions on the East Side. A dozen meetings were held by Yates Republicans in various offices on the East Side yesterday. The auti-Yates men made their head-quarters in W. E. Trautman's offices in the Post-Office building, and a steady stream of workers passed in and out all day. Last night the Yates forces held a big meeting in Beatty's Hall. Both sides declare that they will win by big ma-joritles.

MAIL FRAUD CASE CALLED.

Flachskamm and Reaves Placed on Trial at Cairo, Ill.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Cairo, Iil., March 15.-In the United States District Court this afternoon the case of H. Flachskamm and R. W. Reaves of St. Louis was brought before Judge Humphreys. The defendants are charged with having conducted a mail order business in East St. Louis during the winter of 1901-1902 under the name of the National Mercantile Company and that in conduct-

Mercantile Company and that in conducting the business they published a scheme to defraud their customers.

It is charged that they published an advertisement in various newspapers throughout the United States "a fur collarette free" to persons who would sell pieces of cheap jewelry and remit to them the sum of $2. They also promised six handkerchiefs embroidered in one corner with wash silk and all leather pocketbooks as inducements. It is alleged that they received ar immense amount of mail matter at East St. Louis and that they collected large amounts of money in sums of $2, chiefly from women and children.

WOOD-PFEIFFER CASE CONTINUED. Causes Delay.

Because of the unavoidable absence of Attorney Alexander Flannigen, who is a Representing Cletus Pfeiffer, the son of Capitalist Anthony Pfeiffer of Lebanon, the suit of Miss Anna May Wood of Mill-the suit of Miss Anna May Wood of Mill-the suit of Miss Anna May Wood of Mill-the State of the State of th

the suit of Miss Anna May Wood of Millstadt for $10,000 damages for alleged breach of promise was continued in the East St.
Louis City Court yesterday.
The suit was brought by Attorney Frank
C. Smith of East St. Louis, He holds several letters which, he says, were written by young Pfeiffer, and which promise undying love and affection on the part of Pfc.ffer to Miss Wood. Mr. Smith says that he will prove that Pfeiffer proposed marriage three different times to Miss Weed, and that the dates were practically set each time, but that he would reconsider the matter, and finally refused to marry her, stating that he was in love with a Belleville girl. Miss Wood then empowered Mr. Smith to bring the suit.

To Improve "Whisky Chute." A petition for the improvement of that part of St. Clair avenue between First street and the Black bridge, known as "Whisky Chute," because there are a dozen saloons in a block on one side of the street, is being circulated by former Mayor Maurice Joyce of East St. Louis. He stated last evening that a majority of the property owners had signed the petition, and that he expected it would be presented to the City Council at its next meeting.

defend severely with Rheumatism and other symptoms not necessary to mention. A friend of mine told me that he had been cured of my trouble by S. S., and upon his recommendation I began its use. After using it for some time my blood was thoroughly cleansed of all poison and made pure and strong again—I wish also to speak of its tonic properties. While purging my blood of impurities, it built up my general health, improved my appetite, gave me increased strength, and I felt better in every way. Police Hold Newsboy for Father.
